JUNIORS REACH HALFWAY MARK

For the Juniors of South Houston this year was one of fascinating experience, revelation, and inspiration. As second-year Trojans renewing old acquaintances, they were allowed the privilege of an upper-classman and were expected to accept more of the responsibility. Before they realized it, the year was almost gone. They were caught up in the excitement and confusion of ordering rings, cramming for finals, and dreaming of becoming Seniors. On graduation night they became, at least in their own hearts, the Seniors of South Houston High School.

RINGS CREATE SPRING EXCITEMENT

In the spring the thoughts of juniors turn, not to love (well, not to love as often as usual), but to Senior rings. The best place to buy rings is thoroughly discussed, as are the various prices. Each junior is sure his ring is absolutely the most beautiful of all.

As the orders are filled, here and there a Junior appears, trying not to look smug in front of his fellow Juniors, and hiding the ring from the tradition-minded Seniors. Then the Seniors graduate, and for the last three days, nearly every Junior sports his Senior ring.
