Mr. FTA
 Charles Smith

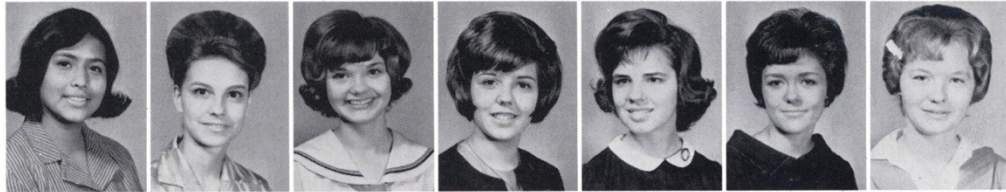

The Carroll Teague Future Teachers of America Chapter is one of the largest and most active organizations of South Houston High. FTA activities this year included sponsoring the American Education Week Assembly, the election of Mr. and Miss FTA, practice teaching in our local schools, and attending the state convention. The election and installation of the new FTA officers brought the year to a close.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS BUILD AMERICA

The South Houston Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America has been especially active this year. Their projects for 1964-65 included making decorations for the Salvation Army at Christmas, and the election of the FHA beaus. The beaus, Glen Reid, Benny Reid, Andy Dement, and Steve Thornburg, attended the meetings and accompanied the chapter to special functions. The FHA climaxed the year with their annual FHA-FFA barbecue. The barbecue, in its eighth year, has always been a great success.

Elaine Selcraig welcomes new members at the year's first meeting.

FHA officers for 1964-65 are Carol Van Ness, Jeanene Tibbs, Belinda Zoet, Norma Hatfield, Karen Eversole, Pam Adams, Diane Carreker, Kay Smith, and Kathy Monaghan.

FHA PROJECTS BENEFIT THE SCHOOL

FHA members Nance Sherrill, Kathleen Monaghan, Kay Smith, Elizabeth Campbell, and Karen Eversole decorate the display case with homemaking department products.

Sponsors Mrs. Lauraine and Mrs. Pinder prepare palm trees for decoration at the state FHA convention.

Senior Kay Smith prepares decorations to be used in the FHA Christmas display.

The FHA officers lead the members in the pledge to open their meeting.

TROJAN BAND

The colorful Trojan Band, which helps boost school spirit both at pep rallies and football games, is the result of many years of training and diligent practice.

Each year the band and the choirs combine their talents to produce an outstanding Christmas concert to add to the Christmas season.

Individual band members participate in concerts and contests throughout the year, while the entire band sponsors a spaghetti dinner in order to finance their various activities.

Then in the spring, the band climaxes the school year with their annual spring concert, which is an unforgettable finale to a great year.

Kay Smith, head twirler.

GIRLS' RECREATION ASSOCIATION

GRA members await Linda McWilliams' serve in a game of volleyball.

Texas Girls' Recreation Association is a club which works to improve its members by furthering their knowledge of various sports. The members of this club learn good sportsmanship and the art of getting along with others. GRA activities this year included volleyball, basketball, ping-pong, gymnastics, and many other sports. The GRA of South Houston High attended the meetings of many other high schools in our area and was host to them several times.

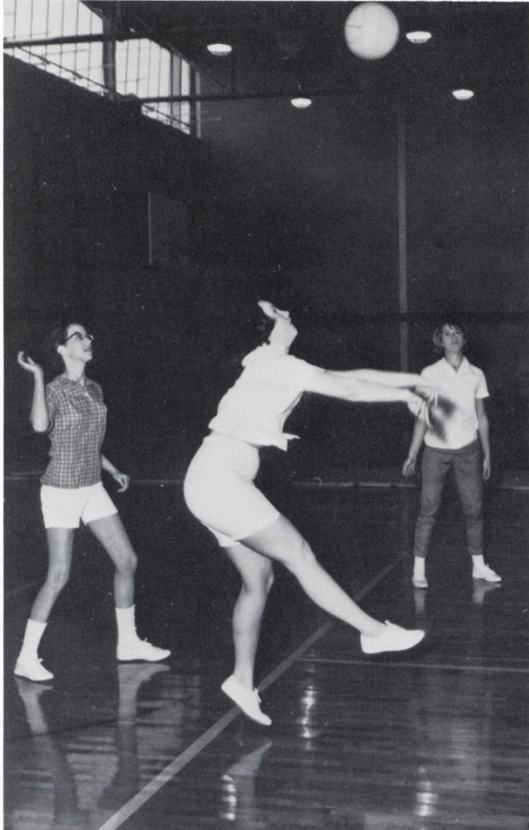

TGRA sponsors, Mrs. Stallings and Miss Savell.

TGRA officers Marla Green, Vicki Davis, Lois Williams, and Suzy Armstrong.

Miss Martin sponsored the Drama Club this year.

"Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned."

Drama Club members perform in The Lottery.

WORLD'S A STAGE"

The Drama Club of South Houston High, designed for any student interested in drama and the theater, deals with the many phases of acting and dramatics. The members are given the opportunity to learn about related topics such as make-up and stage management. The Drama Club puts on several plays throughout the year in the Corner Door Theater. This year's production of The Lottery for Interscholastic League competition was enjoyed by all when it was performed before the senior class.

Janice Biship, Sherry Neff, and Pam Darnell served as Drama Club officers this year.

YOUTH FOR CHRIST CLUB MEMBERS

YOUTH FOR CHRIST

Houston Oiler Don Trull spoke at one of the Youth for Christ meetings.

A Christian organization of South Houston High is Youth for Christ. The club is designed to influence students in the Christian way of life. The YFC is responsible for the morning devotionals and the Christian assembly held each year in the auditorium. The organization is inspired at its meetings by various speakers. This year the Youth for Christ was sponsored by Mrs. Madelon Feazle.

JUNIOR ENGINEERING TECHNICAL SOCIETY

The JETS Club deals with the various fields of engineering and related sciences. It was designed to promote interest in engineering as a promising career. The club accomplished its goal by having men from engineering professions speak to the group. Mr. London, South Houston physics teacher, sponsored JETS.

Members are quite attentive at their monthly meeting.

ASTRONOMY CLUB MEMBERS

CATCH A FALLING STAR

The goal of the year-old Astronomy Club of South Houston is to interest students in the field of astronomy and to give them a wonder and appreciation for the heavenly bodies.

The members meet at night to gaze at the stars with Mr. Mack Neal, who sponsored the club this year.

Come on, Joe. We know there are no stars that low—girls, perhaps—but no stars.

Mr. Chaney Anderson has sponsored the Mathematics Unlimited Club during 1964-65.

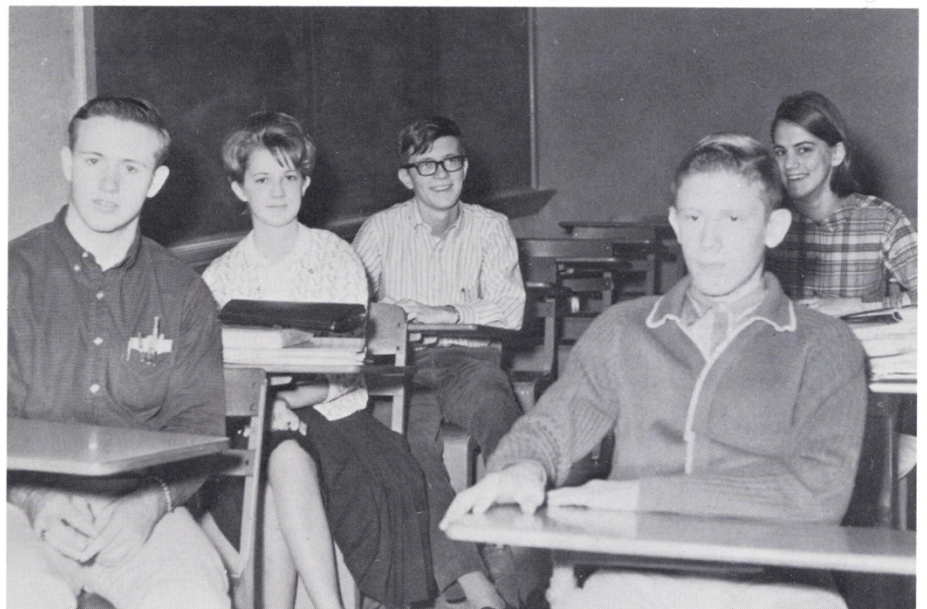

Of course everyone knows that

$$\frac{35}{0} = 0.$$

MATHEMATICS UNLIMITED

The Mathematics Unlimited Club was organized to teach South Houston's top mathematics students shortcuts and new methods to strengthen their speed in solving problems. Under the guidance of Mr. Chaney Anderson, these students were well-prepared for the Interscholastic League Contest in Mathematics.

Mathematics Unlimited Club members are James Conner, Mary Walter, Richard Willard, Debby Copes, and Robert Willard.

Hi-Y members are Brad Nemeth, Paul Thomas, Frank Koska, Bill Douglas, and Dave Yeater.

HI-Y STRESSES CHRISTIAN ACTIVITIES

Mr. Ashworth, Hi-Y sponsor

The South Houston Chapter of Hi-Y, whose purpose is creating, maintaining, and extending Christian attitudes throughout home, work, and school, is a service club sponsored by the YMCA.

The members of the club enjoy facilities at the Southeast YMCA on special Hi-Y nights. This year the club, sponsored by Mr. Ashworth, worked on service projects for the school and the community.

BOWLING CLUB MEMBERS

TROJAN BOWLERS SET RECORDS

The Trojan Bowling Club enables its members to develop good sportsmanship while improving their bowling techniques. The members work in teams, and trophies are awarded to the first and second place teams at the close of the year. The three top players are also rewarded with trophies. Mr. Howard sponsored the Trojan Bowling Club during the 1964-65 school year, and the members bowled throughout the year at the Meadowcreek Bowling Lanes.

Officers of the Bowling Club are Bobby Kriehn, Lynda Holloway, Pam Gregory, Marshall Walters, and Bobby Holloway.
