Taking time from their cheerleading duties, the varsity basketball squad appears to be all tied up.

In Memory Of...

In one sense there is no death. The life of a soul on Earth lasts beyond his departure. You will always feel that life touching yours, that voice speaking to you, that spirit looking out of other eyes, talking to you in the familiar things he touched, worked with, loved as familiar friends. He lives on in your life and in the lives of all others who knew him.

Special Prayers For...

Michael

Silva

*Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear;
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.*

An ultimate end

1984 . . . was Big Brother really watching? George Orwell's predictions were not to be realized . . . an Olympic year . . . another boycott . . . a retaliation? Perhaps. An election year . . . politics and campaigning . . . Michael Jackson thrilled Americans with spicy videos while Van Halen decided to "Jump" . . . Darryl and Kevin got "Footloose" and made a big "Splash" with movie-goers . . . hairstyles included spiked, streaked, gelled, and some with tails!

1983-84 . . . another school year gone. After a shaky beginning with Hurricane Alicia's vented fury, SoHo settled down to the business at hand. High on believing, Trojans boarded the Big Red Express for a prosperous nine month trek.

It was a year of high fives in athletics with junior varsity baseballers capturing the district crown and the lady tracksters winning their first ever varsity meet. Ag students were living high on the hog with winnings collected at Pasadena's Livestock and Rodeo. The musical departments U.I.L. competitions and regular seasonal productions struck high notes.

Yet, all was not well. Computer magnet, H. Ross Perot's educational proposals caused mass confusion and mixed emotions among students, parents, and educators. Striving to be the best in all areas, Trojans remained high on all levels of competition both in and out of the classroom. A seemingly short distance down the track, the high-powered Express slowed to exit yet another graduating class. In this void, a new class would climb aboard ready to get involved and experience SoHo's offerings.

Yes, it was an eventful year and all that had passed would be remembered and cherished by those who had made South Houston: The Ultimate High.

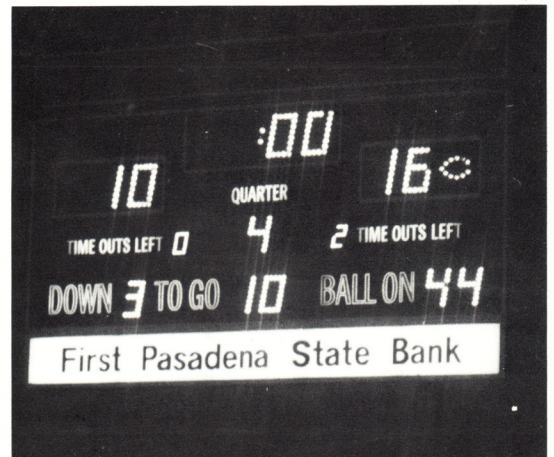

Dana Johnson

While awaiting the beginning of an outdoor pep rally, students mill about anxiously looking forward for the spirit to take hold.
