

Politics and Powwows . . .

organizations

Members of the school government assemble for a picture.

DEMOCRACY WORKS HERE . . .

Football Banners! Sophomore Orientation! Cafeteria Clean-Up! Shouldering these responsibilities and many more, the Student Council made its presence known at Pasadena High. Approximately forty boys and girls were elected from the student body to represent the school in governing affairs. Miss Agnes McKinley sponsored the group activities throughout the year.

The officers, who help keep our campus attractive, are Manuel Urbina, chaplain; Glenn Anders, parliamentarian; Steve Crim, sergeant-at-arms; Sandy Ransey, corresponding secretary; Doylene Byrd, secretary; Beth Crocker, treasurer; Joyce Johnson, historian; Dickie Rosenthal, president; Alvern Gartman, vice president.

Recorded music for a dance is enjoyed by Lois Presswood, Elinda Smith, Joan Fugman, Barbara McCormack, Charlotte Blakeway, and Ernestine Dunham.

Welcome, visitors! Bob Bray, Carol Swanson, Judy White, Sandra Gilleon, Yvonne Whitworth, Danny Powell, and Jannette Stephens want this sign publicized.

AND THERE

Honoring the football team with a party was the first project for the newly organized South Houston Student Council. Due to the absence of the Senior Class, the Juniors and Sophomores led the Council as chief officers and gave the student government a sound beginning.

MRS. AVIS HARDING
Sponsor

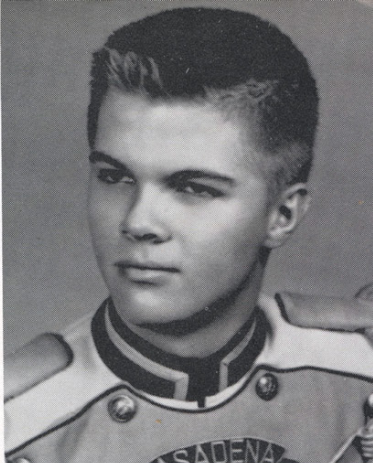

Projects for the year are discussed by the officers. Pictured are Yvonne Whitworth, secretary; Ruben Brown, parliamentarian; Joan Vugman, chaplain; Ernestine Dunham, treasurer; Don Meador, president; Carol Swanson, historian; and Lois Presswood, sergeant-at-arms.

The correct way of taking the oath of office is displayed by Judy Dial, Mary Baker, Patsy Batson, Don Meador, and Elinda Smith.

ROBERT SCHULENBERG
Drum Major

BEN LAWS
Student Director

FRANK YOUNG
Captain

Director, Dr. GENE STUCHBERY, and wife, Mrs. RILLA STUCHBERY admiring national and state trophies won by band.

NATHAN VEATCH
Captain

PASADENA HIGH SCHOOL BAND . . .

Sweepstakes winner of the Tri-State National Contest held in Enid, Oklahoma.

PASADENA HIGH SCHOOL BAND

Twenty-three high stepping Eagle Rockettes performed at all the football games, parades, and various other activities throughout the year. Flanking the head twirler in front of the girls are Dianne Mayhall and Sandy Ramsey, assistants.

MARGARET BLYE
Head Twirler

Band Club officers are busy at work. Johnny Gunter is vice president; James Cole is president; Sandy Ramsey is secretary.

Officers are an essential part of the band. Front row: Mayhall, Blye, Ramsey. Second row: Young, Laws, Urbina, Cole, White, Simmons, McLendon, Schulenberg, Veatch. Third row: Ancell, K. Parker, Roberts, Cruse, Maddux. Fourth row: Gunter, Haynes, Fowler, V. Parker, Harrison, Logan, McKinney.

Front row: Sandra Fuqua, Jeanette Bond, Brenda Daffin, Judy Teague, Alvern Gartman, Susan Betts, Jenny Parris, Barbara Lawson, Margaret Blye. Back row: David McCarley, Miss R. McClung, Bobbie Ancell, Anita Durdin, Miss M. McClung, Dianne Mayhall, Beth Crocker, Victor Sitton, Sandy Ramsey, Janie Archer, Pat Graves, Sylvia McNeel, Carolyn Sayre, James Cole, Carole Wharton, Georgette Haynes, Barbara Jones, Bruce Burns.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Since its charter in 1947, the National Honor Society has been an inspiration and encouragement to the students of our high school to raise their scholastic standards. The membership consists of fifteen percent of the Senior class and five percent of the Junior class, who are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. A Christmas party was held at Diamond Alkali this year.

President Charles Kipple reads to the other officers, who are Claudia Hammond, vice president; Vonnie Sandifer, reporter; Winona Atkinson, secretary and treasurer.

Cookies seem to be the treat as Margaret Blye hands Sandy Ramsey one at the Christmas party. Claudia Hammond, Anita Durdin, Jenny Parris, Larry Smith, and James Cole are in the background.

Checking some history facts are Darline Baker, Barbara Gibbs, and Pat Shipley.

MRS. NEVADA MILLER
Sponsor

Sherry Segars, parliamentarian, Honora Moore, and Babs Kelley, chaplain, find the dictionary a handy item for the future teacher.

FUTURE TEACHERS

Sixteen members belong to this club, which promotes an interest in teaching and gives the future teachers experience in working together. In March the group visited the University of Houston's education department. Other activities during the year included a bake sale, come-as-you-are breakfast, and a picnic for the members.

Officers, discussing club projects for the year, are Elizabeth Fail, vice president; Melinda McGriff, president; Norma White, treasurer; Armeen Lehman, secretary.

Pasadena High A Cappella Choir

PASADENA A CAPPELLA

President Allen Roberts gives the pitch to Carol Willhite, second vice president, while Tybitha Gore, corresponding secretary; Beth Crocker, recording secretary; and Vonnie Sandifer, first vice president await their turn.

Good music is the main characteristic of the Pasadena High A Cappella Choir directed by James T. Loden. The choirs' activities have been limited by the absence of an auditorium, but their spirit was not dampened. With determination and teamwork not often seen in such large groups, the choir set out on the business of learning a concert for their annual spring tour. The numbers included in the concert were classical, popular, and religious.

"Tenors, you're flat," says Mr. James T. Loden, director.

CHOIR

"Carol, I think you've got my robe," says Tina as the girls hurry to get dressed.

A quick warm-up before the concert is heard from the choir.

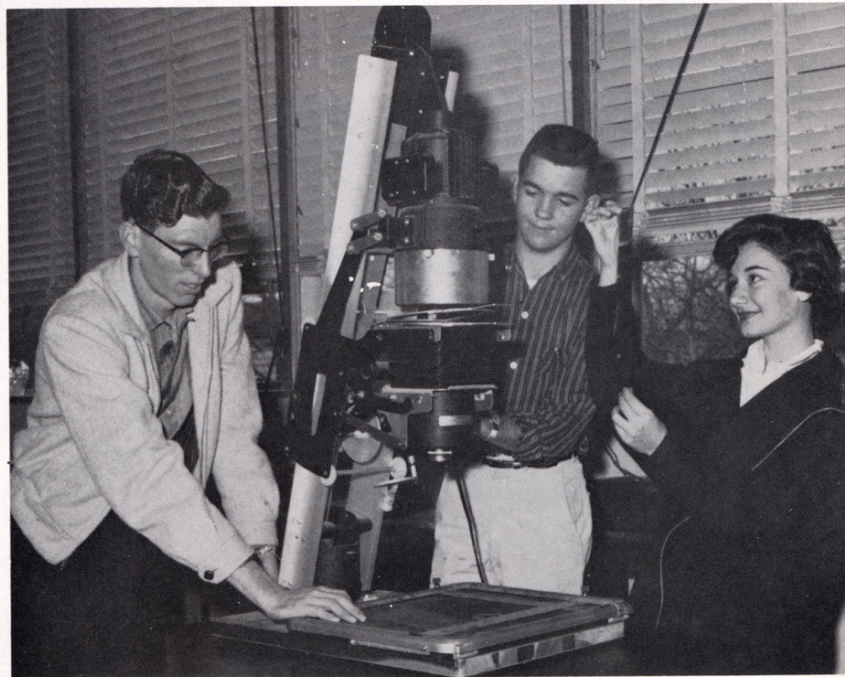

Dan Williams snaps a picture of the members. Back row: Mr. Roy Penny, Don Neisig, Brenda Ashworth, Barbara Brooks, Sue Hayes, Jerry Garrett, Boyd Mullen. Front row: Vivian Lieber, Beberly Mitchell, Melinda McGriff, Sue Walling, Beth Scanlin, Linda Cason.

Officers learn the parts of a camera. Sue Hayes, president; Dan Williams, vice president; Barbara Brooks, secretary; Melinda McGriff, treasurer.

Jerry Garrett, Boyd Mullen, and Beth Scanlin are ready to enlarge a picture.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Fourteen students interested in photography as a hobby or profession joined the Photography Club this year. The members studied still and movie cameras, light meters, dark room techniques, and various types of pictures. Mr. Roy Penny sponsors the club.

EAGLETTES

With their motto, "One for all, all for one," the Eaglettes' main purpose is to keep in contact with the past and the present twirlers. One of their highlights of the year was a Halloween dance sponsored by the Band Parents Club. The Eaglettes also gave a surprise birthday party for their sponsor, Aunt Rill.

Discussing Eaglette plans are Sandy Ramsey, second lt.; Dianne Mayhall, second lt.; Aunt Rill, Sharon Hunn, president, and Margaret Blye, first lt.

Members display their new Pasadena Rockette shirts. Back row: Gloria Broussard, Shirley Dearing, Sandy Spear, Linda Clinkscales, Gay Nelle Brown, Margaret Blye, Vicki Keene, Yvonne Parker, Beverly Nesbitt, Florence Bender, Ahmonilla James. Front row: Sandy Ramsey, Judy White, Marilyn Holub, Charlotte Fountain, Nancie Morgan, Lois Eckert, Judy Blye, Claudean Hargis, Babs Kelly, Sharon Hunn, and Dianne Mayhall.

Officers are: Beverly Nesbitt, reporter; Sharon Hunn, president; Yvonne Parker, vice president; Shirley Dearing, treasurer; and Babs Kelly, secretary. They strike a charming pose.

Hi-Y members relax on the stairs.

PASADENA HI-Y

Pasadena Hi-Y is a service and social group jointly sponsored by the school and the East End Branch Y.M.C.A. This year several of the members participated in the Texas youth and government program held in Austin. A campaign was conducted by the club to raise money for world service. Organizing a strong basketball team was another accomplishment of the members.

Officers listen to their sponsor, Mr. Ralph Womack. Ralph Dorsett, Rodney Langer, Buck Hammond, Jeff Jeffery, Mike Wallace, Lonnie Williams and Billy Stevens are pictured.

President Bill Ripley, shows the Hi-Y plaque to the other officers, who are Thomas Dunn, secretary; Ruben Brown, chaplain; Steve Smith, treasurer; Dale Roberts, sergeant-at-arms; Doyle Savell, vice president.

SOUTH HOUSTON HI-Y

Hi-Y at South Houston High is composed of twenty members. The purpose and future plans of this organization is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. Mr. Rushing Manning is the club sponsor.

Members of the club meet in the cafeteria for a picture.

CREATIVE WRITING CLUB

Each year the Creative Writing Club gives aid and inspiration to those students who have demonstrated an interest in and a talent for creative writing. This year there are eighteen members who write both poetry and prose. Several have had their works published in various anthologies.

Jenny Parris reads her poem to Susan Betts, Charles Kipple, Annette Gray, Larry Smith, Honora Moore, Syble Norwood, Brenda Towles, Norma White, Lawrence Mullins, and Bonnie Wilson.

MRS. AGNES HAMM
Sponsor

Admiring the beautiful cake are Annette Gray, vice president; Susan Betts, secretary-treasurer; Charles Kipple, historian; Jenny Parris, president.

Seated: Vivian Lieber, Judy Calk, Yslete La Berg, Joyce Gray, Marilyn Hebert, Helen Anderson, Claudia Hammond, Norma White. Standing: Rachel Fullerton, Virginia Brandt, Kay Longcar, Jo Ann Manahan, Sharon Cummings, Carolyn Sayre, Elaine Beard, Peggy Tittle, Melinda McGriff, Joy Stern, Brenda Fuller, Rita Patterson, Loretta DeFreeze.

President of the Texas State Future Nurses' Club, Elaine Beard, checks plans with Mrs. Vermelle Roberts, sponsor.

FUTURE NURSES

Girls interested in nursing and other medical fields as a career are offered membership in the Future Nurses Club. Field trips to various hospitals were made this year by the group. The club won a third place trophy for their float in the Pasadena Rodeo Parade.

Officers proudly display the trophy won in the Rodeo Parade. Melinda McGriff, secretary; Joy Stern, historian; Virginia Brandt, assistant; Joyce Gray, Brenda Fuller, and Peggy Tittle, chairmen; Rachel Fullerton, treasurer; Carolyn Sayre, reporter; Loretta DeFreeze, vice president; Norma White (center), president.

Members are posed on the church steps. Back row: Barbara Parten, Manuel Urbina, Felix Ashbranner, John Brashier, Jack Raby, Gayle Stone. Middle row: June McCain, Nancy Williams, Jo Hale, Judy Taylor, Pat Dean, Diana Henckel, Jere Jean Henderson. Front row: Eunice Urbina, Marie Battle, Sharon Ferguson, and Frances Lorenz.

RELIGIOUS LIFE CLUB

Bringing together the students of Pasadena High, who wish to promote their spiritual welfare, is the aim of the Religious Life Club. The members meet in the home of their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. John Peachey. This past year the members issued several hundred Bible book markers to the students. To create a greater realization of the importance of Bible reading and church attendance is a purposeful and worthwhile task for the club.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN PEACHEY
Sponsors

President Pat Dean reads scriptures to John Brashier, vice president; Sharon Ferguson, treasurer; Manuel Urbina, song leader; Diana Henckel, secretary; Felix Ashbranner, program chairman; and Nancy Williams, social chairman.

MR. WILEY BEVERIDGE
Sponsor

Sharon Ingram, secretary; Nikki Bridwell, president; Betty Allen, vice president; Judy Chumbley, parliamentarian, and June Fontenot, treasurer, proudly display their advertisement.

EARN ^{100%} WHILE YOU LEARN TO SELL
ENROLL IN DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION
OPENINGS For JUNIORS ONLY
READ THE PAMPHLET BELOW

James Eskew, Jim Keeshan, Nikki Bridwell, Dorsey Holden, Bill McArthur, Wayne Dees, James Cobb, June Fontenot, Gloria Smith, Sonja Myers, Judy Chumbley, Linda Moore, and Carol Garrett display the D. E. emblem and flag.

DISTRIBUTIVE

Nikki Bridwell, president of the D. E. Club, presides before a meeting of the members and visiting parents.

The display committee composed of Donald Anders, Sue Branch, Floyd Henderson, Pat Richardson decorate the hall showcase.

Saying, "Hats off and gifts to our merchants," are members Floyd Henderson, Sharon Ingram, Donald Anders, Mary Manning, Bobby McGlothlin, Betty Allen, Bruce Anderson, Jannell Talley, Wayne McKinney, Sue Branch, Vernon Mensch, and Pat Richardson.

EDUCATION

This course offers such subjects as advertising, merchandising, shipping, and receiving. Sales department work is also covered.

The D. E. Club is one of the many chapters in the nation. The club raised money to send Mr. Beveridge and four members to the State Convention this year. At the convention the members participated in the speech, job interview, and sales contest.

Buying cokes for D. E. members are Carol Garrett, program chairman; Sonja Meyer, historian; Pat Richardson, display chairman; Linda Moore, chaplain.

First row: Virginia Parker, Babs Kelly, Barbara Jones, Roberta Burch, Claudean Hargis, Charline Grisham, Judy Council. Second row: Elizabeth Allen, Nelle Black, Sharon Cummings, Shearl Bell, Peggy McNeil, Sharon Ingram, Marsha Burns. Third row: Miss Osborne, Vonnie Sandifer, Armeen Lehman, Dana Brookshire, Marguerite Young, Pauline Meusel, Barbara Logan, Jean Finch, Mrs. Snelson. Fourth row: Mrs. Bishop, Georgette Haynes, Mary Dement, Yvonne Ewing, Carolyn Sayre, Claudia Hammond, Barbara Jones, Cynthia Davis, Vivian Fincher, Mrs. Webb.

Officers demonstrate the G.A.A. sports. Georgette Haynes, president; Mary Dement, secretary and treasurer; Cynthia Davis, vice president; Armeen Lehman, publicity chairman.

Sandra Carr, Armeen Lehman (seated), Jean Finch, and Madeline Adams make Christmas corsages.

PASADENA G.A.A.

The Girls' Athletic Association promotes fellowship, recreation, and business. Approximately fifty-five girls, who have earned a thousand points in school sports are members. This year the group made and sold Christmas corsages and earrings.

SOUTH HOUSTON G.A.A.

A newly organized club at South Houston this year, the G.A.A. provided a variety of sports and recreational activities at each meeting. Any girl, who earned the required number of points by participation in the prescribed activities, was eligible for membership and an award. The girls enjoyed wholesome competition and learned the ideals of sportsmanship, character, and health.

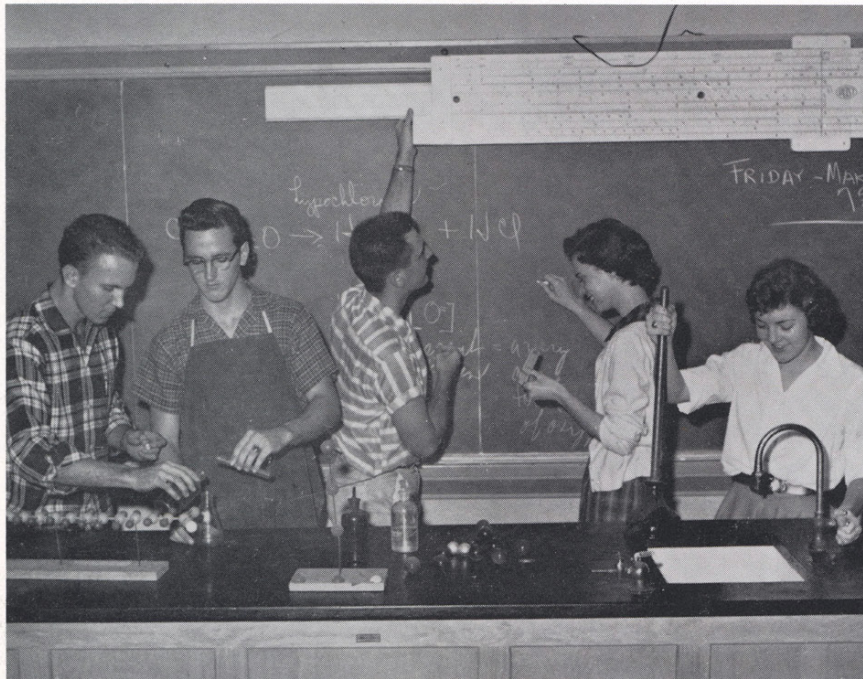

The books are balanced by the officers, who are Sue Story, treasurer; Carol Hawk, secretary; Bobbie Chandler, president; Jo Ann Bigott, vice president; Emily Leflett, reporter.

Members admire a new G.A.A. sweater and letter. Front row: Sue Story, Jo Ann Bigott, Emily Leflett, Carol Hawk, Bobbie Chandler. Back row: Mrs. Smith, Lynn Estes, Linda Bramlett, Judy Calk, Miss Savell.

First row: Bruce Burns, Joe Hanus, Sandy Ramsey, Susan Betts, Glenn Anders. Second row: Victor Sitton, Claudia Hammond, Brenda Daffin, Honey Moore, Elaine Beard, Carolyn Sayer, Jerry Garrett, Charles Kipple, Donald Redwine. Third row: Nathan Veatch, Leslie Lloyd, Tommy Hancock, Joe Moser, James Bunkley, James Wilburn, David Kerhli, Greg Williams, Patsy Fowler. Fourth row: Virginia Coffman, Bobby Lloyd, Clyde Miller, Ken Gooch, Jack Carpenter, Cave McKeown, Karl Davis, Mike Wallace, Annette Gray, James Cole. Sponsors: Mr. G. Roehrick, Mr. W. Wert, Mr. J. Stutzman, Mrs. H. Brame, Mr. A. Sory.

Joe Hanus, vice president, and Glenn Anders, president, mix chemicals while Bruce Burns, parliamentarian, and Susan Betts, treasurer, complete a problem with the slide rule. Secretary Sandy Ramsey seems to be having troubles with the sink drainage.

M.E.S. CLUB

Each meeting of the Math, Engineering, and Science Club was highlighted this year by a film or a talk from an authority of the three different fields. The group planned and produced the Pasadena Science Fair, where members displayed interesting projects.

The group and Mrs. Walker, sponsor.

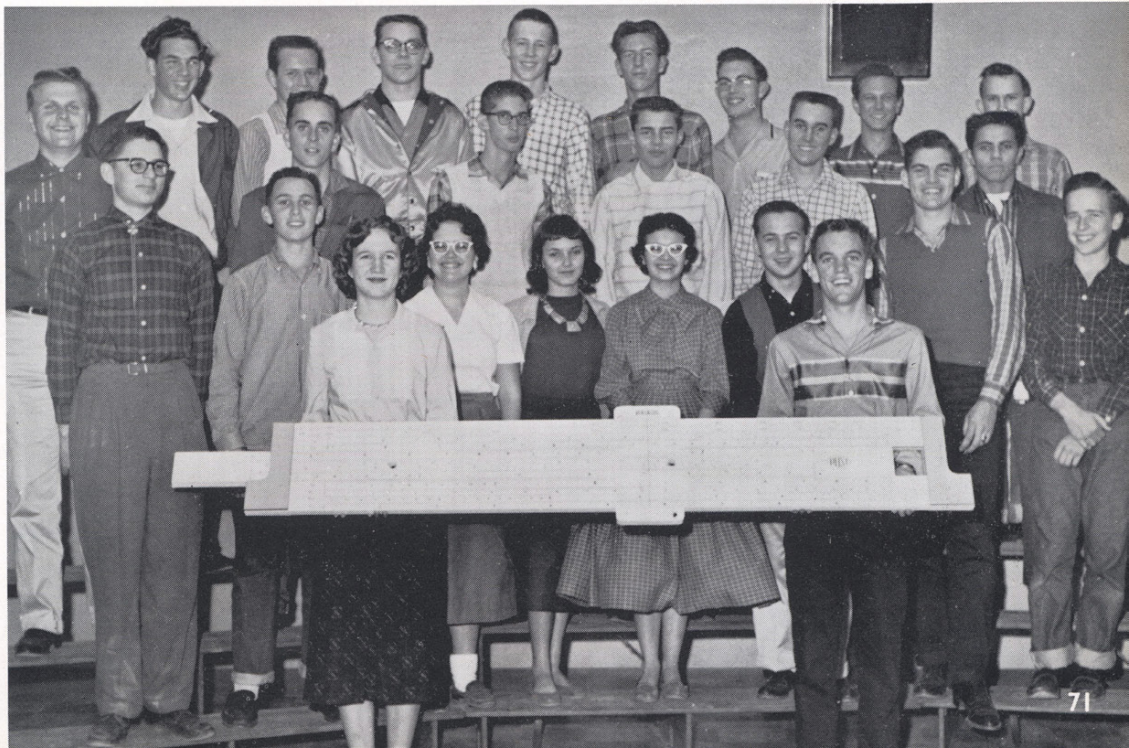

SOUTH HOUSTON MATHEMATICS UNLIMITED CLUB

Organized this year the Mathematics Unlimited Club has twenty-six active members. The purpose of the club is to develop speed and accuracy in calculations. Officers of the club are Bill Swail, president; Inge Padgug, vice president; Linda Tittle, secretary; Judy Dooly, treasurer.

SOUTH HOUSTON SLIDE RULE CLUB

The purpose of the Slide Rule Club is to learn and perfect the art of using a slide rule. The newly organized club attended the Interscholastic League contest at the University of Houston this year.

Glenna Bevan, secretary, and Norman Mayes, vice president, display a large slide rule in front of the members.

First row: Virginia Coffman, Sherry Segars, Armeen Lehman, Sandra Carr, Jo Ann Manahan. Second row: Sandy Hooker, Ellen Ford, Marie Battle, Gayle Stone, Madeline Adams, Sandra Mosher. Third row: Linda Shaw, Sandra Jahn, Gayle Goodnight, Deloras Kellin, Ann English, Pat Dean. Fourth row: Nell Branch, Noreda Jarman, Deloris Henderson, Lillie Underwood. Fifth row: Becky Laura, Sidney Hooker, Cynthia Davis, Beverly Mitchell, Vivian Lieber. Sixth row: Judy Taylor, Barbara Logan, Jean Finch, Virginia Brandt, Joy Stern, Sandra Fuqua, Mr. Bridges and Yvonne Ewing.

BOOSTER ENTHUSIASM

Planning a party for the Booster Club are Virginia Coffman, junior vice president; Armeen Lehman, senior vice president; Mr. Fields, sponsor; Sherry Segars, president; Jo Ann Manahan, sophomore vice president; Loretta De Freeze, a member; Sandra Carr, secretary and treasurer.

Creating a strong school spirit for the student body to follow was the Booster Club's most successful achievement of the year. The all-girl organization, dressed in bright colors of green and white, supported our football and basketball teams with endless spirit.

Good food, a lot of fun, and little sleep provides a swell time for Booster Club members at their slumber party.

ENCOURAGES EAGLES

Hurrah for Eagles! School spirit at the games is expressed by Armeen Lehman, Sandra Carr, Madeline Adams, Jo Ann Manahan, and Sandra Mosher.

DeVara Stalarow, Jolene Motley, Linda Kimen, and Pat Marrie are caught rehearsing for a play.

The "Workshop Wizards," Dan Williams, Rodney Cox, Victor Sitton, and Ted Eaton built the stage sets for a play.

THESPIANS

All Pasadena High School drama activities are promoted by the Thespians. At least five points, obtained from a cast performance or a production staff, are required before the members are chosen. Mrs. Nina Verser sponsors the group.

Club business is discussed by Jolene Motley, treasurer; Betty Walling, president; Rodney Cox, vice president; and De Vara Stalarow, secretary.

President, Carol Sue Edwards discusses speech banquet plans with committee chairmen, Carolyn Wright, Judy Peak, Lynda Cason, and DeVara Stalarow.

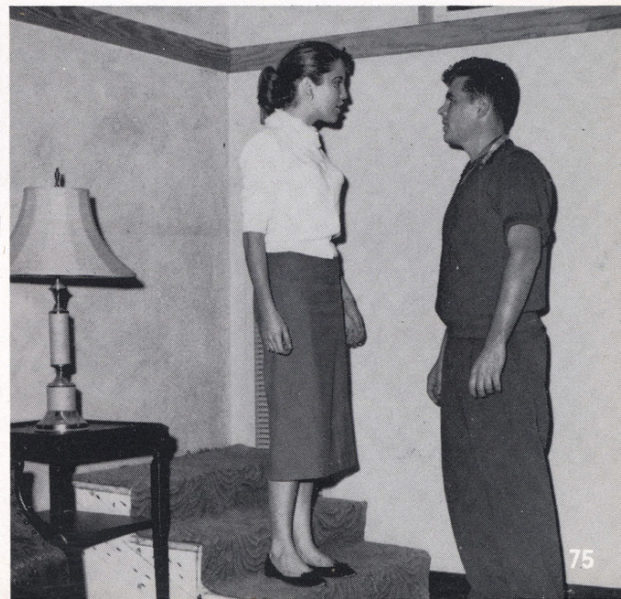

Betty Walling registers guests, Tina Breussers and Charline Dickerson, at the Fine Arts Focus.

SILVER GAVEL

Fine Arts Focus, Speakers Bureau, and "Open House," are among the many activities sponsored by the Silver Gavel Speech Club. A speech banquet and numerous tournaments were attended by the members this year.

Lynda Cason, Rodney Sparks, Calvin Banks, and Carolyn Wright prepare their debates for the Baylor University tournament.

Duet acting is rehearsed by Emily Marchant and Jay Carr.

JASINCO

Sponsored by Sinclair Refinery, this Junior Achievement Company has twenty-two members. Their product this year is personalized house markers.

Left: Billie Bailey, President; Charles Watson, Cave McKeown, Mr. I. G. Parr, Chief Advisor; Donald Hardy, Carolyn Burleson, Mr. J. D. Siefer, Plant Manager; Beverly Thedford, Secretary; Mary Middleton, Johnie Baker, Mary Baker.

Right: Mr. Bill Foster, Advisor; Doris Clark, Beverly Boyd, Treasurer; Zina Covington, Darla Ball, Tommy Dever, Kitty Henningan, Norman Mayes, Freddie Johnson, Vice President; Richard Kendall.

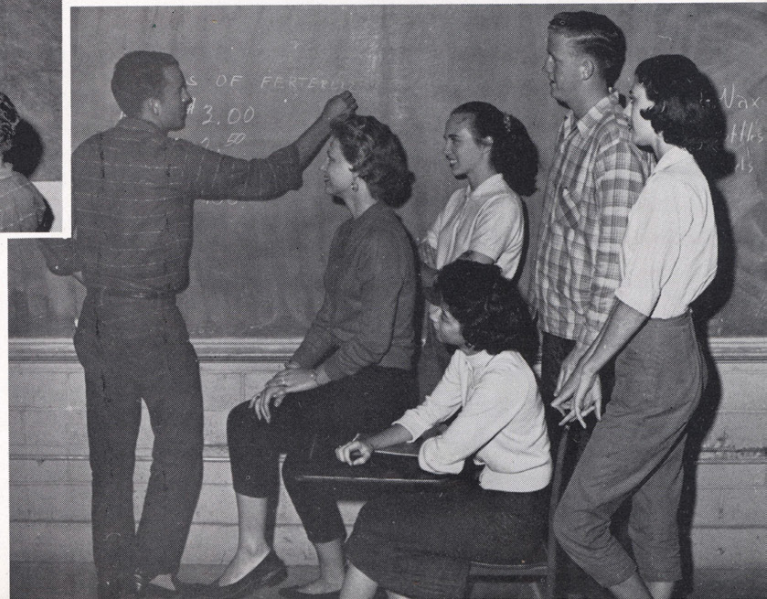

First row: Juanita Daughrity, Beverly Nesbitt, Nancy Lindsey, Patsy Campbell, Kay McCollum. Second row: Mary Hawthorne, Pat Ellingwood, Jody Blackburn, Marilyn Thomas. Third row: Bill Kurtz, Cynthia Davis, Barbara Anders, Jane Leach. Standing row: Mr. Busby, Mr. Becker, Mr. Hare, Mr. Haxley, Mr. Roy, advisors; Roy Daniel, Mr. Johnson, advisor; Charles Hundley, Mr. Gray, and Mr. Kelley, advisors.

PHIL-JAC

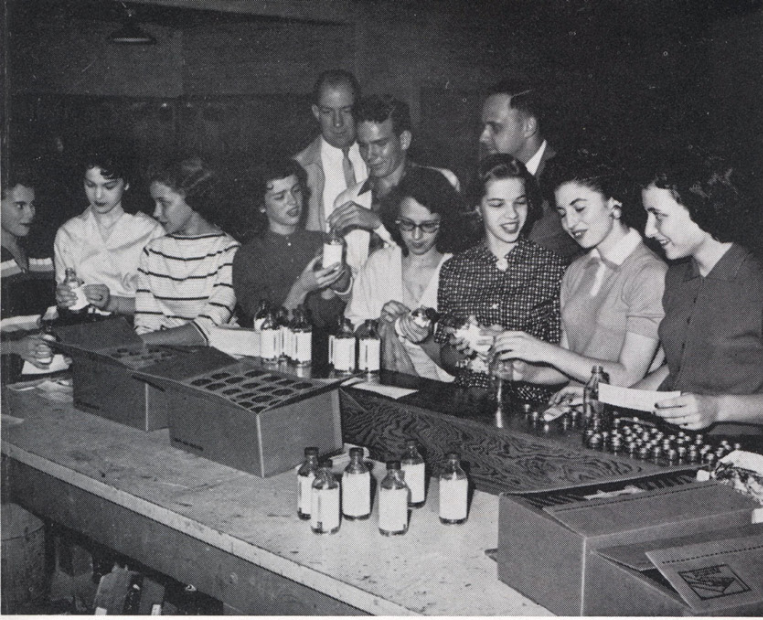

This Junior Achievement Company, sponsored by Phillips Chemical, is composed of nineteen members. Fertilizer, plastic name plates, and floor wax are their products this year.

President Bill Kurtz explains the business to Juanita Daughrity, secretary; Beverly Nesbitt, personnel manager; Roy Daniel, vice president; Kay McCollum, and Jody Blackburn, sales manager.

DIASPARK

Diamond Alkali sponsors this Junior Achievement Company. Producing detergents and cleaning fluids throughout the year is the task of some nineteen members.

Left picture: Sara Tucker, Sarah Smith, Lois Longnecker, Ernestine Dunham, Mr. Jack Lemon, Advisor, Pete Gibbs, President, Emily Leflett, Mr. John Colby, Advisor, Celeste Jackson, Sibyl Norwood, and Bobbie Townsend.

Right picture: Charlotte Fountain, Jerry Carlisle, Gay Nelle Brown, Secretary, Mike Rush, Lynn Mizi, Gloria Broussard, and Betty George, Vice President.

CHAMPION ENTERPRISE

A Junior Achievement Company sponsored by Champion Paper and Fibre. The nineteen members enjoy their work of constructing barbecue bars as their product.

Left picture: Sandra Hooker, Ellen Ford, Jackie Harris, Elizabeth Lacy, Judy Elliott, Jerry dela Moriniere, Rayleen Nelson, Vera Archer, James Ament, Terry dela Moriniere, Treasurer.

Right picture: President Patsy Shoemake, gives out membership pins. Back row: Sidney Hooker, Jerry Tullos, Ann Phillips, Clyde Miller. Front row: Marion Belue, Lura Burnette, Vice President, Bobbie Land, Secretary.

GLO-BLOK

This Junior Achievement company is composed of fifteen members and is sponsored by the Ethyl Corporation. Concrete lawn markers is the company's product.

Left: President Ronald Grafe and vice president Jo Ann Baldwin display the Glo-Blok charter. Secretary Brenda Tinsley and Treasurer Carolyn Merriman check over the company books.

Right: Rodney Cox, Allen Davis, Addie Kelly, Clyde Jacks, and Bob Rundberg examine the company product.

PRESTO

With twenty-three active members, this Junior Achievement company is sponsored by Petro-Tex. Their product for this year is constructing folding TV tables.

Left: Members are busy at work. Back row: Mr. Rainey, Mr. McGinnes, Mr. Buchtler, Darrell Necessary, Jerry Usrey. Front row: Delta Crawford, Linda Hargitt, Brenda Hebert, Terry Brashier, Ellen Le Page, June McCain, and Joan Levine.

Right: Treasurer Beth Scanlin and President Patsy Menefee check the company books with Ann Thompson, secretary; Henry Weymouth, vice president; Barbara Ghormley, Gerald Harris, Yvonne Lankford, Judy Towery, Delores Henderson.

PLASCO

Plasco, a Junior Achievement company, is sponsored by Rohm and Haas Corporation. Winning the second place national industry award for plastics last year, the nineteen members for this term continue with plastic bud vases as their product.

Left: The finished bud vases are checked by Cathy Markey, vice president; Mr. I. E. Headley, Mr. Carl Kohler, Mr. Fisher Horlock, advisors; Helen Jones, and Brenda Towles, president.

Right: Members of the assembly are Mike Yentzen, Pat Burke, Marilyn Holub, Ronald Anderson, Joan Ziegler, Jeff Jefferey, Joe Maddox, Pat Wagner, secretary, Nancy Clarke.

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT ASSOCIATION

The Pasadena Junior Achievement Association is composed of the presidents and vice presidents of each company in Pasadena.

Plans for the Association are discussed. Back row: Roy Daniel, Pete Gibbs, Ronald Grafe, Henry Weymouth, Mr. Donnell, sponsor. Front row: Billie Bailey, Cathy Markey, Brenda Towles, Jo Ann Baldwin, Patsy Menefee, Lura Jane Burnette, and Patsy Shoemake.

Jacqueline Ashley, Beth Gardner, Richard Kendall, Perry Williams, and Mr. J. T. Knebel listen to an interesting debate by Freddy Menard and Joe Perez.

SOUTH HOUSTON DEBATE CLUB

The Debate Club, composed of six members, attended several interscholastic league debating events this year. By participating in these contests a debater may acquire a better knowledge of current affairs and develop stronger speech skills.

SOUTH HOUSTON TROJAN SCRIBES

A group of students interested in creative writing organized the Trojan Scribes at South Houston High School. The club's purpose is to encourage original writing among the members. Officers of the club are Pat Hutchison, president; Donna Chambers, vice president; Peggy Dudley, secretary; Mrs. Karl Parker, sponsor.

Members of the Trojan Scribes.

Members read the club rules.

SOUTH HOUSTON LIBRARY ASSISTANTS CLUB

Members of the Library Assistants Club organized to help circulate a book collection for recreational and supplementary reading at South Houston High. The club acquired a membership in the Teen-Age Library Association of Texas this year. Officers are Carolyn Sollock, president; Carolyn Akridge, vice president; Joyce Rogley, secretary; Betty Barnes, treasurer; Rochelle Thomson, parliamentarian; Angelene Kieke, historian; Jacqueline Ashley, reporter; Miss Margaret Lodge, sponsor.

SOUTH HOUSTON DRAMATICS CLUB

Organized in the spring at South Houston High, the Dramatics Club presented a three-act play for the student body. The twenty-three charter members participated in all forms of dramatic activity. Officers are James Cook, president; Norman Davis, vice president; Carolyn Akridge, secretary; Pamela Blount, treasurer; Mrs. Pauline Williams, sponsor.

Everyone enjoys the new play.

With another successful Beacon out, the staff relaxes by reading their own work. Front row: Mary Taylor, Judy Porter, Ann English, Beverly Nesbitt. Back row: Eddie Talley, Joe Maddox, Jimmy Rash, Tommy Grant, Bill McMillian.

EXTRA! EXTRA! READ ALL ABOUT THE BEACON!

Co-editors Tommy Grant and Judy Porter plan layouts for the next edition.

Latest news flashes plus plenty of action shots equals the Pasadena Beacon, our newspaper. The staff members are directly responsible for the layout, make-up, and direction of the school paper. In the journalism department each student is a reporter for the Beacon which appears on our campus every other week. Presenting the Green and White Revue is the major activity for the staff each year. The sponsor, who devotes much of her time and energy to the success of the newspaper, is Mrs. Leatha Mixon.

"Here's the latest edition of the Beacon, buy your copy now!" announces Mrs. Leatha Mixon, journalism teacher and sponsor of the Quill and Scroll.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Members hurry to meet the next deadline. Beverly Mitchell, Bill McMillian, Mary Taylor, Cathy Markey, and Beverly Nesbitt are standing with Sue Walling and Bobbie Kay Land seated in front.

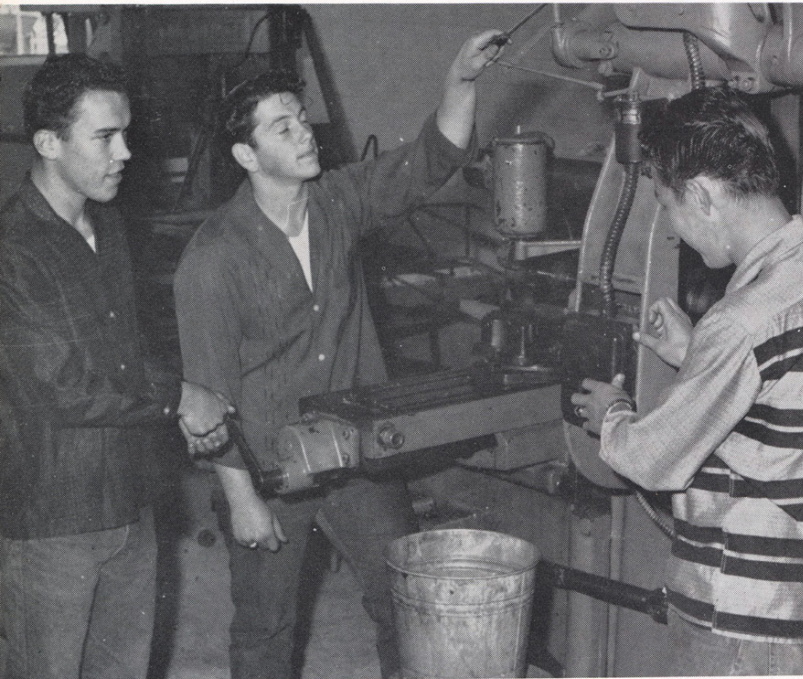

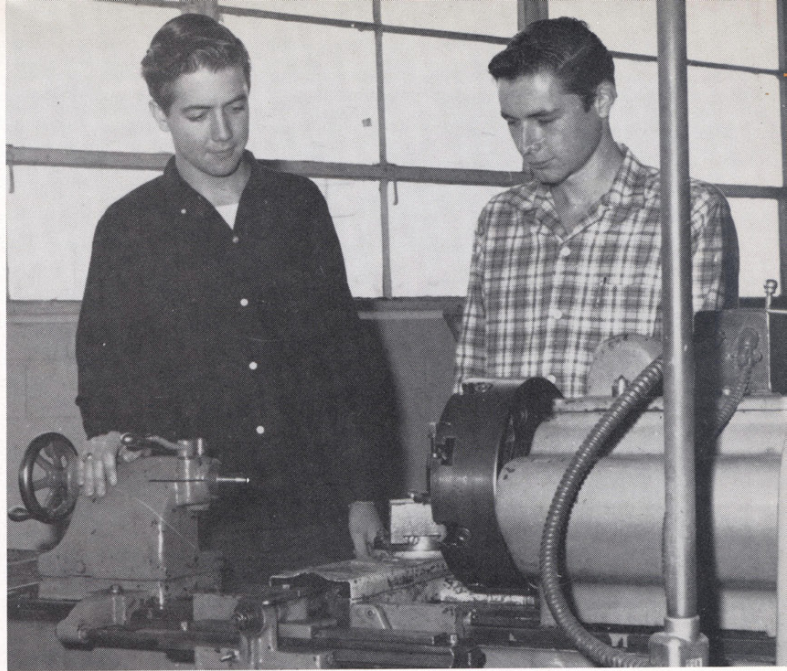

Remember the attractive decorations at the Valentine Dance? Members of the Quill and Scroll are to be thanked for that and the success of the dance. This group belongs to an international honorary journalistic society designed to bring together the students of journalistic and scholastic ability. Each year the club sponsors an awards banquet for the members.

The Quill and Scroll certificate hangs behind the officers, who are Jimmy Rash, treasurer; Judy Porter, vice president; Mrs. Mixon, sponsor; Tommy Grant, president; Ann English, secretary; Joe Maddux, parliamentarian.

MORNING CLASS

Ronald Anderson and Wayne Palmer inspect a shop machine.

Busy at a day's work are Kenneth Foree, Gene Busby, and Billy Ray Dunn.

V.I.C.

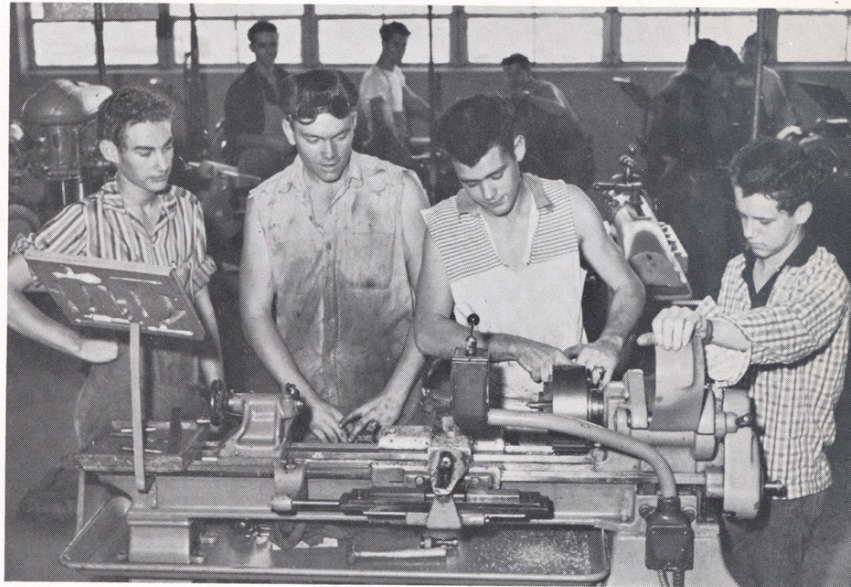

Pasadena High's chapter of the Vocational Industrial Club is composed of members from the morning and afternoon classes of metal shop. The boys attended a fall and spring district meeting in Vidor and Galveston. In micrometer reading Kenneth Foree won first place and in speed shaper Reagan Rosamond placed first. Several other boys won second and third place awards. Mr. Joe E. Hoot is the club sponsor.

The boys wait for a classroom demonstration. Front row: Wayne Palmer, Kenneth Foree, Billy Ray Dunn. Back row: Lawrence Broussard, Tommy Cooper, Gene Busby, Jerry Clary, Ronald Anderson.

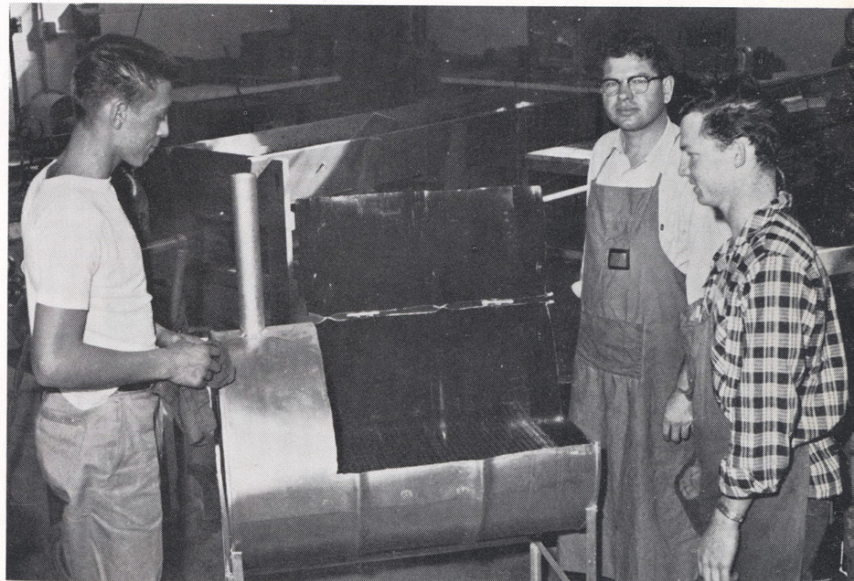

AFTERNOON CLASS

Billy Halton, Ed Hurley, Henry Davis watch Bobby Corder complete his project.

Displaying a bar-b-que barrel are James Wilson, Mr. Hoot, and Jerry Stout.

In the room for checking tools are Robert Heir, Reagan Rosamond, Larry Medland, and Charles Besselman.

Officers are Barbara Jones, Carlene Morgan, Betty Hill, Gloria Johnson, Libby Fail, Jeanette Bond, Jo Lynne Pagitt, Harline Smith, Melonie Simpson, and Nareda Jarman.

PASADENA FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Among the purposes of the Future Homemakers of America Club at Pasadena High are promotion of better family living, participation in home, school, and community activities, and the ability to understand the opportunities of home economics. The girls began the activities of the year by sponsoring a box supper for the F.F.A. boys. As the Christmas season drew near, the members enjoyed several parties. In March the F.H.A. girls attended the Houston Fat Stock Show and Rodeo. F.H.A. beaus elected this year were Bert Coan, Truett Barfield, and Morris Williams.

Katharyn Brock, Glenda Tubbs, Harriett Heywood, Jeanne Eaglin, Joann Shugrat, Maudie Taylor, Nell Branch, Vivian Lieber take time out for a hot cup of coffee and a friendly chat.

Lucy Compton, Mary Nelson, Sue Walling, Pat Dean, Mrs. Kelley, Judy McNatt, Cecelia Peacock find patterns for new materials.

F.H.A. girls learn to sew their own clothes in class.

A busy kitchen scene finds the girls cooking, washing dishes, and, naturally, eating.

SOUTH HOUSTON FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

To provide opportunities for service to the school and community is the aim of the South Houston chapter of the Future Homemakers of America. This year the girls sponsored an old-fashioned taffy pull and began the beautification of the patio. The F.H.A. girls presented valentine favors to the Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital.

Officers are posed with F.H.A. beaus Howard Taylor and Don McFadden. Front row: Sue Wolf, Emily Leflett, Carolyn Sollock, Lynn Estes. Back row: Barbara Chormley, Susan Elliott, Leda Domingue, Sandra Richardson, Billie Shirlie, Dottie Bourgeois.

While learning to keep a house clean and tidy, the girls pause for refreshments.

F.F.A. members proudly display the chapter banner. Front row: Darrell Kelley, James Kelley, Barry Shaw, Jim Ward, Ben Cockrell, Ottis Young, Alec Cockrell, Willie Lively, Frank Parks, George Johnson, Jerry Lively, Raymond Palmer. Back row: Mickey Burns, Kenneth Story, John Stanley, Elbert Adams, Wade Wall, Jim Schieffer, Melvin Atkinson, Charles Evans, Leonard Davis, Jesse Lovelace, Robert Crouch.

PASADENA FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The officers spruce up their animal, Winsome Noble Princess, for the Fat Stock Show. Front row: Ben Cockrell, vice president; Ottis Young, president. Back row: Mr. J. C. Etheredge, sponsor; Jim Ward, treasurer; Alec Cockrell, sentinel; Willie Lively, reporter; Frank Parks, secretary.

A member of the Future Farmers of America learns how to produce a good show exhibit and develop agriculture leadership. Each student is required to conduct a supervised farming program where he puts into actual practice the farming knowledge gained in the classroom.

Pasadena Chapter of F.F.A. was well represented with Dickie Rosenthal as state vice president and Ben Cockrell as area president. Winning the District Radio Broadcasting Contest enabled our chapter to compete in the area contest. Several boys won honors in various State Fat Stock Shows.

Shaving wood for a new fence are Edwin Lepley, Howard Johnson, Dickie Jaynes, Mike Lindburg, Arnold Krajcik.

Officers, discussing F.F.A. projects, are Jimmy Jones, sentinel; Richard Moreno, reporter; Carroll Moore, president; Gene Weed, treasurer; M. L. Mayo, vice president; Henry Howard, secretary.

SOUTH HOUSTON FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The foundation upon which the Future Farmers of America organization is built includes leadership and character development, sportsmanship, service, improved agriculture, citizenship, and patriotism.

Although the F.F.A. chapter at South Houston High is new, several of the members have won awards in different activities this year.

Members pose with Mr. Gene Sollock, sponsor, and their chapter banner.

