College of Education

MAEd/ Curriculum and Instruction

New, 9 credit waivers Plus 10% Tuition Reduction

The College of Education is broadening the credit waiver opportunities within the Master of Education /Curriculum and Instruction program.

Our new policy is for certified teachers that hold any added academic endorsement to be eligible to waive 9 credits upon admission to the MAEd/Curriculum and Instruction program. This includes the TESOL endorsement!

What you'll learn:

The Master of Arts in Education program with a specialization in Curriculum and Instruction is intended to afford P-12 educators the opportunity to enhance their classroom and leadership skills.

Educators will explore the latest research, trends, and strategies. Graduates will be able to effectively collaborate with all stakeholders and serve their students, colleagues, and communities as ethical leaders committed to excellence.
